

SCIENTIFIC SEMINAR

VARIATIONS IN SOCIAL ENVIRONMENTS

XIII

Turku School of Economics
Rehtorinpellonkatu 3, Turku

Wednesday 10.5.2023

0930 @ room Mercatori

room LS13

room LS10

Registration
Coffee & tea

1000 @ room Mercatori

Opening of the Scientific Seminar:
Flagship captain Jani Erola

Keynote:
Taking Open Science Beyond The Universe: An Introduction to Multi-verse Analyses
Takuya Yanagida
University of Vienna

1100 @ Mercatori/Monttu

Lunch

1215 @ room Mercatori

1215 @ room LS13

1215 @ room LS10

Socioeconomic inequality and wellbeing 1

Chair:
Sanna Kailaheimo-Lönnqvist

Juuso Repo:
Equitable growth in resilience? Developmental comparison of pre-pandemic and during-pandemic adolescent age cohorts.

Outi Sarpila:
Children's Leisure-Time Activities in the Context of Family's Economic and Cultural Resources

Merita Mesiäislehto:
Children's living arrangements in Latin America: implications for poverty and family benefits

Sanna Kailaheimo-Lönnqvist:
Parental separation and children's education: changes from 2002 to 2018

Demography and life-course

Chair:
Katrin Schwanitz

Lili Abuladze:
Social Network Outcomes of Demographic Change in Europe

José Luis Estévez:
Too Little, Too Late: Childbearing among Second-generation Women in Finland

Hannu Lehti:
Educational attainment and demographic characteristics by origin in time and place

Katrin Schwanitz:
Off-time leaving home transitions and life satisfaction across young adulthood

Interventions and social experiments

Chair:
Timo Teräsahjo

Tarja Korpilahti-Leino, Terja Ristkari, Olga Osokina:
Let's cope together -digital intervention for Ukrainian families in crises

Mari Berglund:
Stronger together-iCBT intervention with telephone coaching for women suffering from antenatal depression: randomized controlled trial and biomarker study

Minni Roth, Mikael Hekkala, Ilkka Olkku:
The development process of a CBT-based parental training chatbot

Timo Teräsahjo:
Mindfulness-based imagery training program for parents (MBIP): A qualitative study of the user experience of MBIP

1345 @ room Mercatori

Coffee break

1415 @ room Mercatori

1415 @ room LS13

1415 @ room LS10

Socioeconomic inequality and wellbeing 2

Chair:
Niko Eskelinen

Outi Sirniö:
Determinants of NEET entry and persistence: A register-based analysis from Finland

Essi Ahlroth, Markus Laaninen:
NEETs in the light of sociodemographic factors and municipal labor demand circumstances

Ida Ringbom:
Changes in the associations between psychiatric disorders and dropping out of school

Niko Eskelinen:
Birth weight and NEET status in young adulthood and the role of parental education: Evidence using sibling fixed-effects

Intergenerational and within-family influences

Chair:
Patricia McMullin

Elina Kilpi-Jakonen:
The mental health benefits of speaking the origin-country language within immigrant families: The moderating role of family relations across four European countries

Mirkka Danielsbacka:
The influence of timing and cause of grandmaternal death on grandchildren's educational success

Marie-Pier Larose:
How neighborhood deprivation interact with polygenic indices for mental health problems to predict conduct problems in adolescence

Patricia McMullin:
The relationship between childhood geographical mobility and educational attainment in adulthood in 11 European countries

Health and biology

Chair:
Henri Salokangas

Sonja Gilbert:
Changes in perceived stress, loneliness, depression and anxiety symptoms among first-year medical students before, during and after Covid-pandemic

Abdel Abdellaoui:
Genes influence complex traits through environments that vary between geographic regions

Hannu Lehti:
Biological and social pathways in intergenerational accumulation of social disadvantageous – Using twins to uncover the key mechanisms

Henri Salokangas:
Psychiatric spillovers of cancer in families: A study using Finnish nationwide data

1830-0000 Dinner & party @ Arken

Tehtaankatu 2, Turku

Thursday 11.5.2023

0930 @ room Mercatori

Coffee & tea available

1000 @ room Mercatori

Keynote:
Helga de Valk, Director, Netherlands Interdisciplinary Demographic Institute (NIDI) Professor of Migration and the Life Course, University of Groningen

1100 @ Mercatori/Monttu

Lunch

1215 @ room Mercatori

1215 @ room LS13

1215 @ room LS10

Socioeconomic inequality and wellbeing 3

Chair:
Katri Aaltonen

Johanna Lammi-Taskula:
Does early childhood education promote parental wellbeing in Finland?

Joonas Uotinen:
Comprehensive understanding of well-being: what role for social sustainability?

Katri Aaltonen:
Financial burden of medicines in five Northern European countries: a decommodification perspective

Social relationships and networks

Chair:
Claire Garandeau

Alyona Artamonova:
Kin availability and later life survival in pre-industrial Finland

Minna Tuominen:
Social networks after retirement

Daniel Graf:
Disillusion in a healthy context: How bullying victimization can undermine the belief in a just world more strongly in classrooms with lower levels of victimization

Claire Garandeau:
Bullying Perpetration Is Not Associated With Higher Internalizing Problems: The Role of Fulfilled Status Goals

Skills & learning

Chair:
Esther Mbih

Lotta Lehti:
The Translation and Cultural Adaptation Process of a School-Based Mental Health Intervention on Emotional Awareness in Children Living in Finland

Satu Koivuhovi:
A person-centered approach for examining track-based differences in children's motivation and well-being within the Finnish comprehensive school

Sanna Herkama:
Boosting the implementation fidelity of a bullying prevention program on developing mentorship model and delivering it

Esther Mbih:
Behavioural Barriers to Human Capital Investment - Evidence from French Jobseekers

1345 @ room Mercatori

End of Seminar
Coffee & tea

INVEST
#NewWelfareState