

Thursday 7.5. Parallel sessions 16.15–17.45

EDU3	PUB2	PUB4	PUB5
Education, mental health and vulnerability	Research related to COVID-19	Migration and mental health	Sociogenomics
Chair: Sonja Gilbert	Chair: Yuko Mori	Chair: Prakash Khanal	Chair: Henrik Dobewall
Elina Kilpi-Jakonen: Intergenerational mental health and immigrant–majority gaps in upper secondary completion: A longitudinal register-based study from Finland	Luiz Alonso de Andrade: Welfare state foundations of psychological resilience in Finland: Insights from the COVID-19 and Ukraine crisis	Sanni Aalto: Latent profiles of cognitive, social, and mental health functioning among school-aged children: Domain-specific patterns and the role of immigration background	Marie-Pier Larose: Integrating polygenic scores and network modeling to understand academic difficulties and bullying
Tiina-Reetta Lauren-Knuutila: Guardians’ perspectives on school attendance problems: Youth vulnerabilities, support systems, and pathways back to school	Olli Kiviruusu: Mental health before, during, and after the COVID-19 pandemic up to 2025 among Finnish boys, girls, and gender diverse youth	Bingkun Zhang: Predictors of parental psychological flexibility among Chinese mothers living in China and abroad	Hannu Lehti: Biological and social pathways in intergenerational accumulation of social disadvantages – Evidence from twin data
Outi Sirniö: Diverging destinies? Childhood mental health disorders and their impact on educational attainment and early adulthood earnings	Anne Abio: Increase of fatigue in female adolescents: A pre- vs post-COVID cross-sectional survey comparison	Zahra Kafami Khorasani: Migration and risk of autism spectrum disorders and intellectual disability: A nationwide case-control study	Aleksi Karhula: Increasing polarization of schools in mental health risks
Sonja Gilbert: Navigating multiple domains: Qualitative insights on balancing education, social connections, digital environments and leisure for adolescent mental health	Raimo K. R. Salokangas: Non-binary gender identity and adverse childhood experiences associate with decreased functioning during an exceptional societal stress. A university community study during COVID-19 pandemic Yuko Mori: Adolescent help-seeking behavior for mental health before and after the COVID-19 pandemic: A cross-national time-trend study in eight countries	Prakash Khanal: Parental immigration status and offspring mental health service use for anxiety and depression: A Finnish nationwide register study	Henrik Dobewall: Genetic correlates of residential mobility in Finland: Social stratification, mental health, and the life course